Junior Golf Report

The arrival of September, the shorter days and cooler weather all point to the finish of the 1999 Junior Golf Program. Keenan Hopson and Donna Bell have faced some tough competition this past summer but their confidence will take them a long way down the road to success. We all wish them luck, encouragement and support in the future.

Our junior members need to be honest with themselves. On Monday nights, 9 hole rounds - a dishonest scorecard that gets entered into the computer for a handicap affects their ability, potential and future goals.

Thank you to the team captains who teamed up with between 5 - 7 players for a Texas Scramble. A 3-way tie resulted in a putt off. 1st was Scott Loutit, 2nd was Michael Adey and 3rd was Dillon Adey. It was enjoyed by all and we had repeated requests to have a putt off more often.

We had 2 junior players sign up for the Ladies Simon. Donna Bell (6th) and Erica Martinson. Great golfing!

Our Junior Nite Lite Tournament has been changed from Friday, September 10 to Saturday, September 11.

I would also like to thank Marcia, Darrel, Wes and Denis for a successful 1999 season. We have a lot of great golfers and I for one am looking forward to next year.

Lost Club

#9 Iron, Liberty-Linx was inadvertently left on #13 green on Men's Night early in September of 1998. The club belongs to a set of clubs that were a Father's Day gift a couple of years ago. If you picked it up, a father and his two daughters thank you. Please drop it off at the Pro Shop. It would make dad and his girls very happy!

President's Report

August breezes finally brought some fair weather and the good ship PGG&CC started a turn to better times. Of course our operation is not a car-topper and turn arounds take time.

The golf course is finally in the "pristine" condition that we all had hoped for. Apparently, the type of grass that takes over "old" golf courses is the major problem with the time it takes to recover from a "bad" winter. Murray and the boys have done an admirable job in getting the most from what we have to work with. Comments on the course from both the ladies and men's major tournaments were very positive.

There has been some concern about hosting the BC Men's Amateur next year. Barring a natural disaster, this event will go ahead. Reports from provincial officials and an outside expert brought in to examine our turf confirm that our "track" is as good as any that have hosted this tournament. Your support and enthusiasm is encouraged.

In response to everyone's concerns, the board has decided to re-instate the General Manager position. We will give preference to a local candidate who is well versed in the problems and opportunities the club faces.

Our Annual General Meeting is coming up quickly. With that in mind and knowing your concerns, please plan to attend. The club is looking for a "few good men and women" to fill upcoming vacancies on the Board of Directors. If you have ideas and enthusiasm and can spare one evening a month, please consider running for a seat on the Board. Having served for 6 years, I will be stepping down from a commitment I really enjoyed sharing with some very dedicated and hardworking people.

The latest two reasons for the missing "president's picture":

1. Club can't afford a new one.
2. Deliberately destroyed so no one would know who to hassle.

There's a little chill in the evening air these days. Perhaps that's a reminder to all the curlers to break out the brooms and organize the teams that will do battle while the snow flies.

Greg Ames

Prime Time Golf

The Club has decided to change the Prime Time hours for golf on Saturday's, Sunday's and statutory holidays from 3:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. After 1:00 p.m., tee times will be available to non-prime time players and the public.

Golf News

The month of August is always important for competitive golfers in the region as the club hosts its annual amateur tournaments for both Ladies and Men. All reports from the Ladies Simon Fraser indicate that the event was a success. Reports indicate quick rounds, quick results from the scorers (thank you Mary Lund), and a good time as always. Thanks to Janice Hodgins and her committee for organizing this year's tournament.

The Men's PG Savings Amateur was filled as usual and the committee headed by Kevin Bowman did a super job of the whole event. Every aspect appeared to be "smooth" to the players. Here too, all participants appreciated quick rounds and quick results from the scorers.

The kitchen and lounge staff were publicly recognized at the conclusion of both these tournaments for the quality of the food and for the efficiency and service to the members. We would like to add our thanks for a job well done.

The Pro Shop staff play a critical role in the success of events such as these, helping out the committee where needed, assisting with the draws, announcing the starts, accommodating clubs from out-of-towners, club cleaning, cart service and being a general info center. Our thanks to Laurie and everyone else in the Pro Shop for helping to make these and all the other tournaments such a success.

We would like to thank the sponsors of Men's Night for the month of August. They are:

- Molson's
- PG Savings
- Brownridge & Company
- Pacific Western Breweries

Your position on the golf course is immediately behind the group ahead of you, not immediately ahead of the group behind you.

Bud Burbee, Golf Director
Mike Jenkins, Club Captain

We are in the process of updating our locker files and we are asking for the memberships' co-operation. There will be a notice attached to each locker. We ask that you fill out the form in its entirety and bring it to the front desk.

Again, we appreciate your help in this matter. Thank you.

Pro Shop News

The course is now in good condition but it seems like a short season with the weather we have had. I would reluctantly like to remind everyone of our WINTER GOLF SCHOOL running from January 3, 2000 to March 31, 2000. This has become very successful and has proven a great way to learn or improve your golf game. Please sign up early as we have limited spots available.

As you read this, the sign up sheet for the FINAL MEN'S NIGHT is available in the Pro Shop.

In March 2000, Nizam Ali and myself will be hosting a golf holiday to San Carlos, Mexico. Departure will be March 2 from Vancouver and is an all-inclusive package for 2 weeks. The price will be $2100.00 can/per person and includes airfare, hotel, meals, beverage, unlimited golf & taxes. If you are interested, please talk to Nizam or myself. We will be making arrangements for travel between Prince George and Vancouver.

TIP OF THE MONTH

Lately I have seen a lot of people hitting some poor shots around the green (chilly dips, etc.). Usually, this is caused by a too long and too fast backswing that results in de-acceleration at the ball. To correct this, take a slow backswing and shorten it relative to the distance to travel and you will now be able to accelerate through the shot for a better result. All golf shots need to be hit with acceleration to be effective. Try this tip: starting from the tee as you progress down the fairway, the closer you get to the hole, the slower your backswing should get.

Course Report

The following are the highlights from a brief report from Jim Ross. This is for the benefit of our members and a more detailed report is being prepared for the benefit of Murray Kutyn and our directors.

Jim was at our course on August 11 & 12 to assess the condition of our course and to offer recommendations on how we could better prepare our course for the up and coming winter season. Jim is with the Prairie Turfgrass Research Centre at Olds College. He has previously worked as a golf course superintendent and has been involved with the Research Institute for the past 5 years.

The majority of the injury was a result of ice cover injury that occurred during the winter and spring. Rainfall of December 8-10 created conditions where ice formed on many of the greens which resulted in the damage. From our research conducted at the PTRC last winter, we found that Poa annua (annual bluegrass) began to rapidly decline after 30 days of ice cover and by 60 days was completely killed. Creeping bentgrass, on the other hand, is much more tolerant of ice cover and can resist injury for more than 90 days.

Murray mentioned that those greens that completely cleared of snow during the rain event came through the winter quite normally. However, those greens that did not clear, iced up severely and suffered considerable injury. Murray mentioned that rain events were common and, in fact, had occurred three times in the last seven years.

There are essentially three ways to deal with the ice. One is to prevent an ice cover from forming by removing the snow and ice as it builds up during the rain event. The second alternative is to remove the ice at around the 30-day mark following the rain. The third alternative is to prevent ice from forming by placing an impervious cover over the turf prior to winter. All three alternatives have their drawbacks.

Ice removal during the rain event is only possible if there is sufficient time to remove it before it freezes to the putting greens. Removing ice at the 30-day mark may expose the annual bluegrass to very cold temperatures which will cause freezing injury. The covers will only be effective if they prevent water from entering through the covers or under the edges. The expense of purchasing and installing the covers is also an obvious drawback.

Besides injury caused by ice cover, freezing injury in the transition period from winter to spring is a concern. From our research, we also found that annual bluegrass was very susceptible to injury when subjected to cold temperatures that were preceded by a warm period. Plants will lose their ability to resist freezing injury if they begin to grow during this period. At this point, we recommend to keep plants cold and dormant until the risk of cold temperatures (-8 Celsius or colder) has passed. In order to do this, an insulating material can be placed under the impervious cover. This will keep the turf cold and dormant, as well as protecting the turf from rain that turns to ice.

We discussed a number of alternatives for insulating materials that would be available around Prince George. No doubt some experimentation would be necessary.

Curling Report

It's hard to believe, but at the time of writing this, the curling ice in the new building will be almost ready to use. We are hopeful that the First Annual Summer Bonspiel will proceed as planned the last weekend in August and become a popular event. The Superleague is planning to start an early round-robin for those competitive curlers who want to get an early start. Regular league play will start as usual in early October.

We are sure that most curlers realize that participation has been declining over the past few years. This obviously affects revenue. With this in mind, the Finance Committee has recommended to the Board that we do not put ice into the old building this year. This will result in a substantial cost savings and with the curling numbers from last year we can accommodate all curlers in the new building if we make a few adjustments in scheduling. It should be mentioned that nothing will be taken from the old building and ice can be installed if curling participation increases. We are hopeful that the Scott Tournament of Hearts will make more people aware of this sport and increase participation. Also, the Curling Coordinator and Curling Committee along with Curl BC and Curl Canada will continue to focus on the promotion of curling as a fun, affordable sport.

There are five leagues that will be affected by having only 8 sheets of ice: Monday Men's, Construction League, Friday Mixed, Legion & Tuesday Seniors. In the case of Monday Men's (44 teams) we are proposing that we alternate the 12 team overflow to Wednesday night; Construction League (20 teams) would also alternate 4 teams to Wednesday night; Friday Mixed we would like to see alternate 6:30 and 8:30 which would make a bigger league; Legion League (24 teams) would alternate at 9:00 Sunday or at 1:30 and Tuesday Seniors (22 teams) alternate either earlier or later at their choice.

We hope that the curlers will support these necessary changes but when you see the financial picture, we are confident you will appreciate the need for cost reductions. Please contact Murray Kutyn, John Thompson or myself if you have any questions. The Curling Office will be open by the time you get this message and on behalf of the club, we wish you a fun and successful curling season.

1999 Prince George Savings Men's Amateur

This year's tournament was a great success with everyone involved having a great time. The weekend also included a fun night sponsored by: Mr. R.R.S.P. Shel Jacobsen and Wendy's with the money raised going to junior golf.

I would like to extend a few thank you's to those who made the tournament the success that it was. A special thanks to Prince George Savings for their generous support again this year. Also thanks to Mike Jenkins and Laurie Pierce who were a big help from the beginning to the end. Also thanks to the front office staff for all the help with the photocopying, entry forms etc.

Murray Kutyn and his crew spent many hours in the week before the tournament getting the course in great shape and did a great job, thank you.

Congratulations to all the prize winners, but most of all to our tournament champion Mike Legg who posted three very solid rounds. It was great to see so many players in the hunt on Sunday.

From the Golf Course Superintendent

With both the Ladies & the Men's Simon behind us, I would like to take this time to thank my staff for a great effort over the last month. Through what has been a difficult season, the greens staff kept a keen focus on our overall objective which was to provide our members and guests with the best playing conditions as possible.

One of the Prince George Golf & Curling Club's greatest assets is its staff and I am proud of the level of professionalism displayed by the greens staff for this year and especially, the attention paid to detail in getting the course ready for the Simon Fraser Tournaments.

This was a true team effort involving all departments within the Club and your efforts did not go unnoticed. Thank you!
